LOCAL LINES.

—For Dr. Pendley ring 416.
—Call Palmer Transfer Co. for carriages, baggage wagons and first class livery rigs. Hack fares and trunks strictly cash. Best service in the city.
—Sign and carriage painting. G. R. Sexton, both phones 401.
—Call or phone Gardner's drug store, if you need anything in the drug line.
—I have a choice stock of new pianos of Baldwin, and other makes direct from factory, to sell, rent or exchange. I will take most any commodity that has commercial value, in part payment. Call and see them and get my prices and terms or phone me No. 1041-A. W. T. Miller.
—Greatest bargains ever offered in copyright books, only 50c at R. D. Clements & Co.
—Mr. George W. Kelley, traveling collector for the Singer Sewing Machine company, is in the city. He was formerly a printer and has worked in Paducah.

—Sig Hershman has accepted a traveling position with the Scotch Ale company and left today on his initial trip.
—Souvenir buttons may be used as a means of raising funds for the proposed Confederate monument in the Carnegie library yard and Chairman D. G. Murrell has sent away for samples.

—The revenue of Riverside hospital is proving fully adequate to the maintenance of the institution and the pay wards yielded in September $518.75, more than enough to pay the expenses of the whole hospital.
—It will not be known until the board of aldermen acts tomorrow night what will be done in regard to the city's donating $500 to the silver service fund. City officials generally seem to favor the contribution for the gunboat named after Paducah.

—Yesterday was the fortieth anniversary of the Battle of Corinth, Miss., in which Messrs. W. G. Whitfield and Joseph Ullman, of Paducah, participated. On this occasion Paducahans captured the celebrated gun Lady Richardson.

—Dr. L. D. Sanders has moved his office to residence 318 S. Sixth, front of court house.

—The I. C. will run an excursion to Louisville on the 8th allowing a two days' lay over in that city. The train will leave Paducah at 10:30 Sunday morning arriving in Louisville in the afternoon. From indications it will be well patronized, excursions being run in from the Evansville branches to make connections with the main train.

A Pleasant Surprise Party.

The many friends of Miss Orphan Thurman, the popular and attractive young daughter of Mr. E. D. Thurman, proprietor of the Hotel St. Nicholas, gave her a surprise party last night at her home, 306 South Third street.

Cards were indulged in and the lady's prize was won by Miss Clara Miller. The gentleman's prize was won by Mr. Pat Morrison. The affair proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the season. Those present were:

Misses Mary Geagen, Clara Miller, Mary and Emma Mix, Gertrude Haas, Ella Hill, Teresa Yopp, Kate Miller, Mary Haas, Nancy Baker, Clara Phillips; Mesdames Harry King and Ivo Pettit; Messrs. Tom White, Pat Morrison, Arthur Mills, Fred Moore, Dr. Louis Hugg, Ivo Pettit, Joe Loesser, Leak Thompson, Russell Long, Will Dickie, Harry King, Frank Gray.

Three Girl Babies Born to Mrs. Berry Anderson.

Big Tobacco Barn at Lynville Burned—Several Deaths and Marriages Reported.

REV. CHEEK PREACHES THERE

(From Yesterday's Messenger.)
Mrs. Berry Anderson, living five miles southwest of Lynville, gave birth last week to three beautiful girl babies. They were all good healthy babies and are now doing well.

Mr. Anderson and his wife are both very proud of their trio of girl babies. Their many friends extend congratulations and hope they may live to be beautiful young women.

On last Wednesday, September 27, at half past six o'clock, Mr. John Vernon Galloway and Miss Mattie Permillia Curry were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Shelton.

Mr. Galloway is a prosperous young farmer, son of Mr. J. C. Galloway, one of Graves county's most prominent farmers. Miss Curry is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. J. N. Curry, a prosperous farmer, formerly of Union county but now of Graves county.

Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

Mrs. Oscar Flood, the seventeen year old wife of Mr. Oscar Flood, died at Spencer's chapel Saturday after an illness of typhoid fever. She was the step daughter of John Flood, of that section, and leaves besides her husband an infant. She was buried at the Spencer Chapel burying ground.

Mrs. Jasper Bell died at Sedalia Monday after a lingering illness. She leaves a family and many friends to mourn her death. She was a true Christian woman.

Mrs. Frank Minnich, of the county, asked for a divorce Monday from her husband.

Rev. Cheek, of Paducah, was in the city yesterday and today. He assisted Brother Cates this morning at the Baptist church.

Mr. Will Reeves, of the Reeves Grocery Co., of this city, received a telegram Tuesday morning that his wife's brother, Mr. Aubrey Arrington, died Monday in New Orleans of yellow fever, and that his brother who was there with him was also stricken and is not expected to live.

W. H. Hester and T. J. Murphy of this city, bought 45 feet of corner lot N. E. corner at 7th and Broadway known as the Lawson property last Saturday for which they paid $200 per front foot amounting to $9,000. This is a very valuable lot in that city, upon which they expect to build two or three business houses and some very fine second and third story residence flats.

(From Yesterday's Monitor.)

The large tobacco barn belonging to Mrs. Charles McClain, one half mile west of Lynville, burned last night at about 10 o'clock. The barn caught from the fire with which the tobacco was being cured.

The structure is valued at $1,000 with about that amount of tobacco lost, several parties having all or a portion of their crops housed.

There was no insurance on the barn or contents.

The structure was a large one and the huge flames brought many people to the scene.

The light was noticed also, in Mayfield, twenty miles away.

Mrs. Nancy Pogue, wife of John Pogue, died at Arlington Saturday morning at 4 o'clock and was buried at 4 o'clock at Burnetts' chapel, this county, Saturday afternoon at Mr. John Wilford conducting the funeral services. She was about 25 years of age and leaves a two weeks' old baby.

People and Pleasant Events

Children's Musical Drill.

A very charming feature of the Friday night events of the Horse Show will be the Children's Musical Drill. Mrs. Joseph L. Friedman is chairman of this special feature and it gives promise of being one of the most attractive and taking of the many good things. It will be on the order of the grown-up musical drill but with an especial charm of its own. Quite a number of children have already entered for the drill, and it is desired that any others wishing to do so will give their names in at once. Mr. Saunders A. Fowler is the leader of this drill and is meeting each afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the baseball park with the children for practice. The children are showing much aptness and skill and will make it one of the prettiest sights of the Friday night program, and one to win the applause of the onlookers.

Among the children already entered are:

Hattie Henneberger, John Campbell, Leslie Warren, Robert Mills, Henry Leake, Belle V. O'Brien, Lucile Overby, Susie Dabney, William Hughes, Lucien Burnett, Henry Burnett, Herbert Evetts, Helen Van Meter, Fowler Post, Morgan Dorris, Thomas Corbett.

Nelson-Halley Wedding.

Harry Nelson, of St. Louis, and Miss Pearl Halley, of Cairo, were married at 9:30 o'clock this morning, at the home of the bride's father, A. Halley, on Eighth street. Rev. J. A. Armstrong, of the Lutheran church, performed the ceremony. Miss Marie Halley, a sister of the bride, was the maid of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson after a trip to eastern cities, will make St. Louis their home.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mrs. M. D. Nelson, of Paducah, Ky., mother of Mr. Nelson, and David Halley, of Indianapolis, a brother of the bride.

Mrs. Nelson is an extremely popular girl among Cairo's younger society folks. Mr. Nelson formerly lived in Paducah and has many friends.

Capt. Ed Farley Pleasantly Surprised
Yesterday, Tuesday, October 3, was the thirty-fourth anniversary of the marriage of Capt. Ed Farley, of Mechanicsburg, Republican nominee for representative, to the general assembly and one singular incident of the anniversary is that he married on Tuesday, October 3, the anniversary coming on the same day of the week.

Capt. Farley was surprised by a large number of his neighbors and friends by a dinner given in his honor. The affair was quietly arranged and Capt. Farley knew nothing of it until his friends began coming in.

Capt. Farley is one of the most progressive and prominent citizens of Paducah and needless to say, fully appreciated yesterday's pleasant surprise.

Mrs. Palmer and Party in New York
Word was received here today of the landing of Mrs. Elbridge Palmer and party in New York on Monday.

They sailed from Liverpool on the 23rd. Mrs. Palmer and Miss Compton are expected home in a few days but Miss Frances Gould will remain for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Leffert Buck, at Hastings-on-the-Hudson.

Miss Elizabeth Nash, who is now there, will return home with Miss Gould.

Is Still Rising.

Among the new students of the law department of the University of Louisville is Mr. Lothair Smith, formerly of Paducah, and a grandson of Dr. J. D. Smith and a brother of Mr. Anber Smith. Mr. Smith is cashier of the Equitable Life Assurance Society in Louisville, and is a mos-progressive and successful young man. His advancement since he went to Louisville has been remarkable, and shows what energy and intelligence can accomplish.

Will Remain in Paducah.

Prof. Harry Gilbert, who has had several fine offers from other cities under consideration for sometime with a view of a probable location in one of them, has quite decided now to remain in Paducah this winter. This will be good news to his host of friends and admirers here, and a great gain to Paducah's musical life. Mr. Gilbert would have been a loss that the city could not have afforded.

Mr. Harry Watkins, of Marion, Ky., is registered at the Hotel Lagomarsino.

Mr. Virgil Moore, formerly of Paducah, but now of Chicago, where he is a dentist, is visiting in Paducah.

Mr. T. A. Baker and wife have returned from a six week's visit to Bowling Green.

Miss Emma Knaus, of Evansville, is visiting Mrs. Harry C. Rhodes, of West Jefferson street.

Mr. Lem Ogilvie has returned from Dawson Springs.

Mrs. Lee Rose has gone to Louisville to visit.

Mrs. C. B. Harpole, of Evansville, Ind., is visiting Mrs. Harry C. Rhodes, of West Jefferson street.

Judge R. T. Lightfoot has gone to Carbondale, Ill., to visit his mother for a few days.

Dr. Carl Puryear has gone to Chicago to enter dental college. His mother accompanied him.

Ed. C. Orr, who was here yesterday, has located in Paducah, being engaged in the roofing and repair business. He and his wife in a few weeks will establish their home in Paducah.—Mayfield Mirror.

Mr. J. J. Read, of Paducah, who has been visiting his father, Mr. O. D. Read, went to New York yesterday.—Owensboro Messenger.

Mr. E. C. Wolff went to Eddyville this morning on business.

Mr. J. C. De Mert returned this morning from St. Louis where he had been on business.

Dr. C. A. Elliott, of Woodville, arrived this morning on a visit to friends and relatives.

Miss Fannie Singleton has entirely recovered from her paralytic stroke and left this morning for Dawson to resume her position at the Arcadia hotel.

Mr. George Smith, of St. Louis, connected with the Heinz Pickle Co., is here on business.

Mrs. John G. Rinklife went to Owensboro this morning to visit.

Miss Mary Flournoy, of Memphis, arrived at noon to visit relatives.

Mr. J. S. Spinner, of the local I. C., went to Louisville at noon today on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bliss, of New York, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Campbell, left today for Eddyville for a visit. Mrs. Bliss was formerly Miss Sallie Leonard.

Mr. R. D. Garrett, of Princeton, is in the city on business.

Mr. P. H. Thompson, of Benton, is registered at the Palmer house.

Mrs. Sarah Sanders will return this week from Battle Creek, Mich., where she has been for her health.

Mrs. Will Rosson, of Shawneetown, Ill., who has been visiting Mr. Allie Wilkins on South Eleventh street returned home yesterday.

Mr. Jno Isaman is confined to his home on South Sixth street with an attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. J. J. McLaughan has returned from a visit to relatives at Little Rock, Ark.

Mrs. P. H. Thompson, of Benton, was in the city today.

Mr. R. E. Stafford, of Mayfield was in the city today.

Mrs. John J. Saunders, of Louisville, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Nash, of North Ninth street.

Mr. Ruitz F. Dorr, of Princeton, Ky., is registered at the Palmer.
